1. Minutes:

Minutes of November 18th, 2013 were approved as distributed (moved/seconded-L. Elliott/R. Aultman).

2. Treasurer's Report: Beth Collett

-The $1100 in outstanding bills for guard uniforms needs to be paid by the boosters.

-Marching band uniforms need to be dry cleaned.

-Need alumni facebook page in order to get information out about poinsettia order and jazz night.

-Profit from poinsettia orders was $5004.00

-Discussed the Meijer One Card, however we need to find out the account number that has been used in the past. Mr. Taton will research this.

-November treasurer's report was approved as distributed (moved/seconded-C. Strandskov/B. Prout).

-Need to transfer $600 from general fund to marching band fund to pay outstanding bills, moved/seconded-M. McAllister/L. Elliott).

Instructor's Report: Matt Taton

See attached report.

Mrs. Brauker's student teacher(Tess)

-Handed out Chris Cakes tickets, but students are not eager to sell them even though she explained that they would get a portion of the profit.

Melanie Jorgensen

There was good attendance at the concert last Thursday.

Mr. Ratkos - absent

Winter Programs – Half of the budget is gone for drum line due to budgeting for 20 students and only 11 students were actually going to participate. So the program was cancelled. Mr. Taton volunteered to talk to Michelle, Andy and Dylan about this situation.

3. Fundraising

-There's a jazz meeting tonight @ 8 p.m.

4. Public Relations

-Marshall Music will make us brochures promoting our music programs at no cost to us.

Next meeting is January 27th @ 7 p.m.

Meeting adjourned at 8:00 p.m.
